Judiciary Committee

Title: AN ACT CONCERNING OFFERS OF COMPROMISE.

Statement of Purpose: To amend provisions concerning offers of compromise to provide that: (1) Notice of damages and expert witnesses and authorization to disclose medical records be required in all actions to recover damages resulting from personal injury or wrongful death, rather than only actions alleging negligence of a health care provider as is currently provided, and (2) in any civil action, the plaintiff shall be required to file an acceptance of an offer of compromise not later than ten days after the offer is filed, rather than within sixty days after the offer is filed as is currently provided.
